Flag

The flag of Spain as it is defined in the Spanish Constitution of 1978, consists of three horizontal stripes: red, yellow and red, the yellow stripe being twice the size of each red stripe. Traditionally, the middle stripe was defined by the more archaic term of gualda, and hence the popular name rojigualda.

Coat of arms

The coat of arms of Spain represents Spain and the Spanish nation. It appears on the flag of Spain and it is used by the Government of Spain, the Cortes Generales, the Constitutional Court, the Supreme Court, and other state institutions. In its design, the medieval kingdoms that would unite to form Spain, the Royal Crown, national sovereignty, the constitutional monarchy, the Spanish national motto: Plus Ultra, and the Pillars of Hercules are represented

National anthem

Marcha Real de España

Solemne

The image displays a musical score for the Marcha Real de España. It consists of four systems of piano accompaniment, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The first system is marked 'Solemne'. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The second system ends with a double bar line. The third system includes a first ending bracket. The fourth system concludes with a 'D.C.' (Da Capo) instruction.

Food

Spanish cuisine is heavily influenced by historical processes that shaped local culture and society in some of Europe's Iberian Peninsula territories. Geography and climate had great influence on cooking methods and available ingredients. Spanish cuisine derives from a complex history where invasions and conquests of Spain have modified traditions which made new ingredients available. Thus, the current and old cuisine of Spain incorporates old and new traditions.

Malaga

A scenic view of a coastal town built on a cliffside overlooking the sea. The town is nestled on a steep, rocky slope covered in lush green vegetation. The sea is a deep blue, and the sky is a clear, light blue. The text "THANK YOU FOR WATCHING!" is overlaid in a white, serif font, centered in the middle of the image. The text is enclosed in a thin white rectangular border.
